

Homework – Why is it important?

- It is a bridge between home and school.
- It consolidates the work of the classroom.
- It allows your child to develop independent learning skills.
- It shows you what work your child is doing in school.
- It helps you now if your child is having problems with the work.