Agenda Item	Notes	Action
Acknowledgment of Traditional Territory
1. Building Systems Update	Director Loewen, and District Consultant Sean Cameron, provided the Committee with an overview of the updates that have been completed within district buildings to increase security. In addition, the district was recognized in a presentation on building systems security.	Information only.
2. Kindergarten Registration, Enrollment, School of Choice Report	Superintendent Lenardon reviewed the current kindergarten registration, enrollment, and School of Choice report to the Committee; the district will see a decline in enrollment throughout the district. This year, we have received fewer SoC requests than years past.	Information only.
3. Daycare Update	Directors Loewen, and Darney presented information to the Committee on a Minor Capital Project submission to convert a classroom at Horse Lake Elementary School into a childcare space for before and after school aged children.	THAT the Board of Education of School District No. 27 (Cariboo-Chilcotin) approves the Capital Plan-Child Care (Minor) submission as presented.
