

Where are they NOW?

Talia Baptiste
First Nations Role Model
2011

Once our Role Model...always our Role Model.

Watch for future updates on the Role Models and where they are now!

Introducing Talia Baptiste First Nations Role Model 2011

"Talia currently lives and works for her community of T̓sideldel. She moved back in 2015 to spend more time with her ?Etsu (Grandmother) to learn more about her family tree, language and culture. Talia has been on T̓sideldel's Council since 2018 and serves as the youngest member on council. Talia has received a certificate through the University of British Columbia from the Aboriginal Health Community Administration Program in 2018. In 2019, Talia received a Certificate in General Studies from Thompson Rivers University. Talia has been working in T̓sideldel's Economic Development Program as a Proposal Writer since August 2015 and has contributed to; Land Use Plan 2016, Traditional Land Use Plan 2019, and the Community Comprehensive Plan 2018. Talia is a Board of Director for CCATEC as a youth representative. Talia is part of the Governance Committee through the Tsilhqot'in National Government which is a team that is working on drafting the Tsilhqot'in Constitution and contributing work to the Tsilhqot'in governance work such as the new Women's Council."

